

TRANSPORTATION OF CATTLE.

Secretary Motion Issues Regulations Governing Ocean Shipments.
WASHINGTON, March 21.—The secretary of agriculture has issued a series of regulations for the safe transport of cattle from the United States to foreign countries. Some of the salient features of the regulations are as follows: "Cattle or sheep must not be carried on any part of the vessel where they will interfere with the proper management of the vessel or with the efficient working of the necessary life boats or with the ventilation of the vessel. Cattle must have six feet vertical space on all decks, free of obstructions."

When it is desired to carry cattle upon the third deck a permit must be obtained from the inspector of the port. No cattle shall be loaded upon hatches or decks above cattle, nor upon thin deck hatches when cattle are carried upon such decks, nor shall any merchandise, freight or food for cattle be loaded upon said hatches, but said hatches shall at all times be kept clear. All vessels shall carry hogheads of not less than 400-gallon capacity for each 100 head of cattle, and these shall be filled with fresh water before sailing and refilled as required.

Cattle or sheep suffering from broken limbs or other serious injury during the voyage shall be slaughtered by the captain of the vessel.

The employment of all cattle attendants shall be under the control of owners, or men so employed shall be duly assigned as part of the ship's crew, and shall be furnished with well lighted and well ventilated quarters. Not less than one-half of the cattle attendants must be men who have made previous trips with cattle. There shall be such man in charge of each 150 cattle, and one to each 200 sheep during the summer months.

No vessel shall be allowed to take on board any cattle or sheep unless the same have been at the port of embarkation at least 31 hours before the vessel sailed except in special cases and by direction of the inspector, nor until the loading of the cargo has been accomplished.

"Well," said he, "I don't care to criticize the president of the United States, but I do think I know my business. I have spent 36 years learning it, and I think I am competent to prepare an accurate chart and description of my ship's course at sea. If the president had requested my appearance in Washington to personally explain the matter, I think I could have satisfied him in five minutes. There is nothing more to be said about the matter."

ANTI-CIGARETTE BILL.

Senate Passes It With an Amendment Allowing Voters to Buy Them.

DEPOSITORY LAW REMAINS.

House Indefinitely Postpones the Bill Providing For Its Repeal—Omaha Charter Bill Recommended to Pass—Conferees Agree on a Relief Bill.

LINCOLN, March 21.—Amidst considerable disorder the house in committee of the whole considered Wednesday morning the bill to repeal the depository law. It is senate bill 78, by Pope, and provides for the repeal of chapter 50 of the laws of 1891, entitled: "An act to provide for the depository of state and county funds in banks." Johnston (Nebraska), a Populist and one of the supporters of the bill when it was first framed and passed four years ago, assailed the law in round terms, favored repeal, and said that he had seen the error of his ways.

Thomas, Davies and Howard, in forcible language, defended the law. Davies, in replying to the figures showing how much had been lost by the state since the depository law was enacted, said that the financial condition of the past two years was no criterion for the present or future legislation. Davies said the principle underlying the present depository law was that the money of the taxpayers of a county should be for their use and benefit, secured to them, and not for the benefit of the county treasurers and bankers.

Howard's motion to recommend indefinite postponement of the repeal bill was adopted by a vote of 43 yeas to 39 nays.

The Omaha city charter bill was then taken up and amended and recommended to pass.

The committee of the whole recommended the passage of Watson's senate bill No. 401 for the better protection of prisoners confined in jails in counties having more than 25,000 inhabitants, and authorizing the voting of bonds for repairing and constructing jails.

The anticigarette bill as it passed the house was taken up by the senate and after being amended out of semblance to its original form was recommended for passage. The bill as it passed the house absolutely prohibited the sale and manufacture of cigarettes in the state of Nebraska. The bill as amended by the senate permits the sale of cigarettes to all persons over 21 years of age.

Conferees Agree on a Relief Bill.

The joint conference committee on the $200,000 relief bill have reached an agreement. The result of the conference is a modified bill. The amount is left at $200,000. Each county will be permitted to purchase its own seed, and the money to pay for the seed will be drawn by the auditor upon the recommendation of the state relief commission. The commission will not be allowed to reserve more than $500 for its expenses. The principal feature stricken out of the bill is the one which distributes the money by direct appropriation to the several counties and limits each county to $40,000.

Will Pay No Wolf Bounties.

The senate claims committee met and considered the miscellaneous claims bill passed by the house. The important feature of the action was the knocking out of all the claims for wolf bounties. State Auditor Moore says that the wolf bounty bill recently passed by the house will, if it becomes a law, cost the state near $300,000 to $470,000, as estimated by the committee.

He will take them at once to Butte. They will be placed under $5,000 each to appear before the district court at Butte on May 7, to stand trial for the murder of Scott. The treasurer's report showed an indebtedness of about $300. Provision was made for its payment. It was decided that the next state convention should be held late, some time in September, at some city west of Lincoln, and that the basis of representation should be upon the vote cast for Silas A. Holcomb for governor at the last general election. A resolution setting the stamp of disapproval upon fusion with either of the old parties was offered by Bryant of Cedar county, but the committee declined to entertain it, and it was withdrawn.
